Perhaps You Didn't Know

Let us explain

Sidney Lanier was not only a poet, but musician, soldier, clerk, scholar, naturalist, mathematician, lecturer, teacher, linguist, and novelist. His writing reflects all these experiences including his love for the Georgia marshes near which he lived his boyhood. The artwork and literature in our memory book often include these themes that were so much a part of the man--and often a part of the school that bears his name.

Out of the hills of Habersham,
Down the valleys of Hall,
I (the river) hurry amain to reach the plain,
Run the rapid and leap the fall,
Split at the rock and together again,
Accept my bed, or narrow or wide,
And flee from folly on every side
With a lover's pain to attain the plain
Far from the hills of Habersham,
Far from the valleys of Hall.

from "The Song of the Chattahoochee" by Sidney Lanier (the Chattahoochee is a river)

In a green meadow
Near a patch of swaying trees,
Summer at a pond:
Frogs, burping in contentment;
'Skeeters, dancing a ballet.

Kim Knutzen 8F

On their endless flights
Light birds glide soundlessly,
Circling high above.

Karen Brew 8F

The Alps

Mountains with caps on
Sticking their points in the clouds
Majestic and tall

Beth Reinsel 7J

Summer
Warm, bright
Fishing, swimming, resting
Barefooted in deep grass
Freedom.

Ciel Pettit 8F

Working, reading, writing

Books, papers, chairs, couches

Sleeping, playing, eating

Dull, lonely

Home.

This Was The Year Of...

two Presidents dying...

class meetings and a faculty seminar...

commitment to education...

the Redskins' first Super Bowl...
the end of The War...
the prisoners coming home...

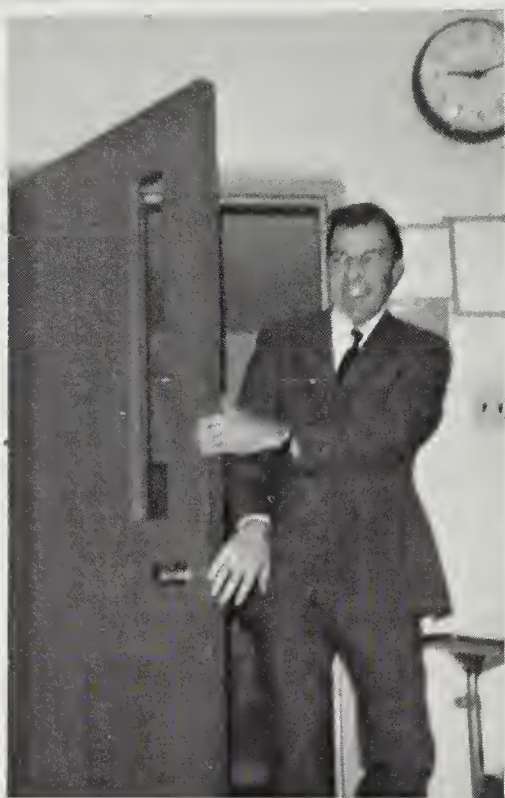

Apollo 17 to the moon...
and a landslide for Mr. Nixon....

Ponies running free
Across a meadow greening
Under a blue sky.

They're coming home at last

I didn't think Monday would ever get here!

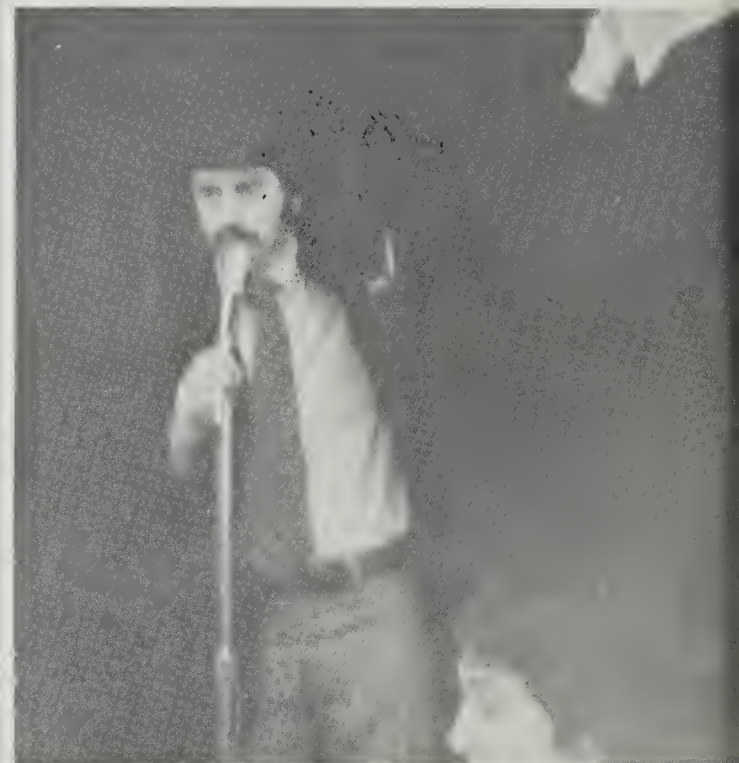

She always says to use a pen when I don't have one.

Smile--You're reading the yearbook.

Maybe Mr. Korpi won't see me.

What am I bid for this copy of Mrs. Richardson's exam?

Honest, Mr. Wilkie, I'm studying my math....

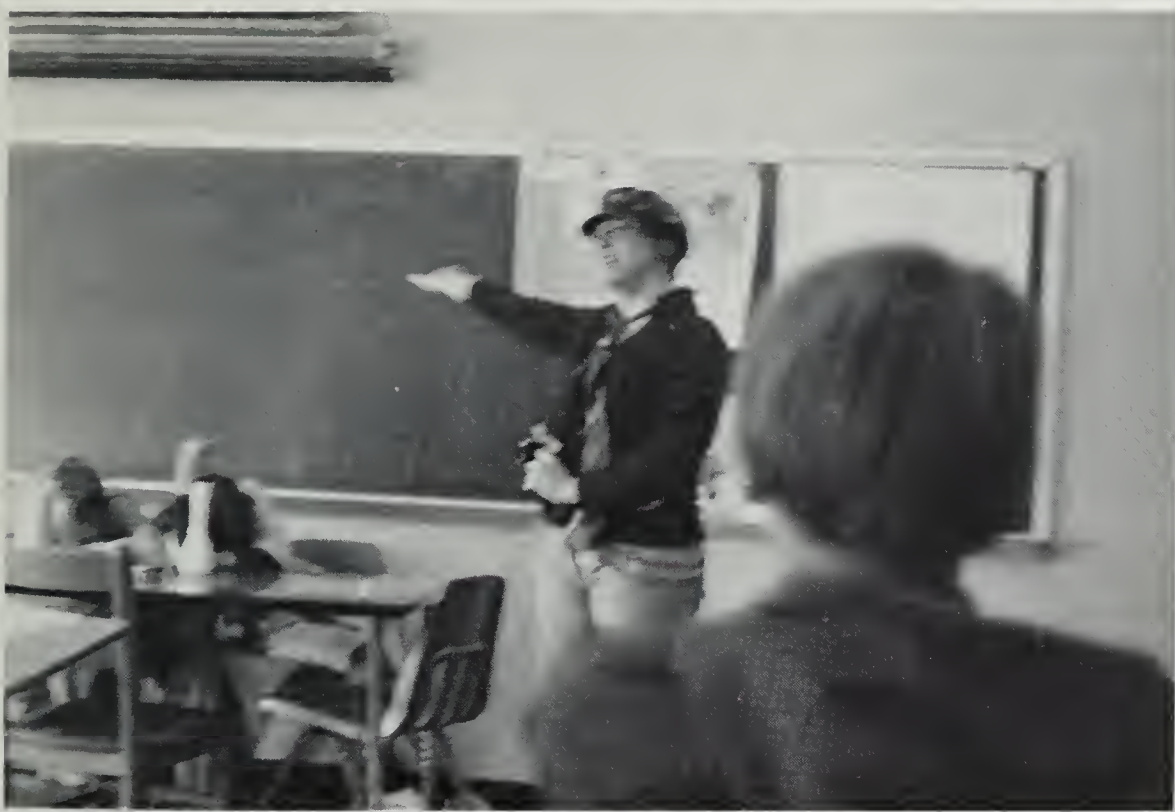

Slurp.

Have you heard the latest?

Now, class, that is a blackboard....

I'd LOVE to hear your side of it.

Who wrote this on the front of my tablet?

I'll never get used to these bifocals.

agony!!

Mr. Smith will never find me now.

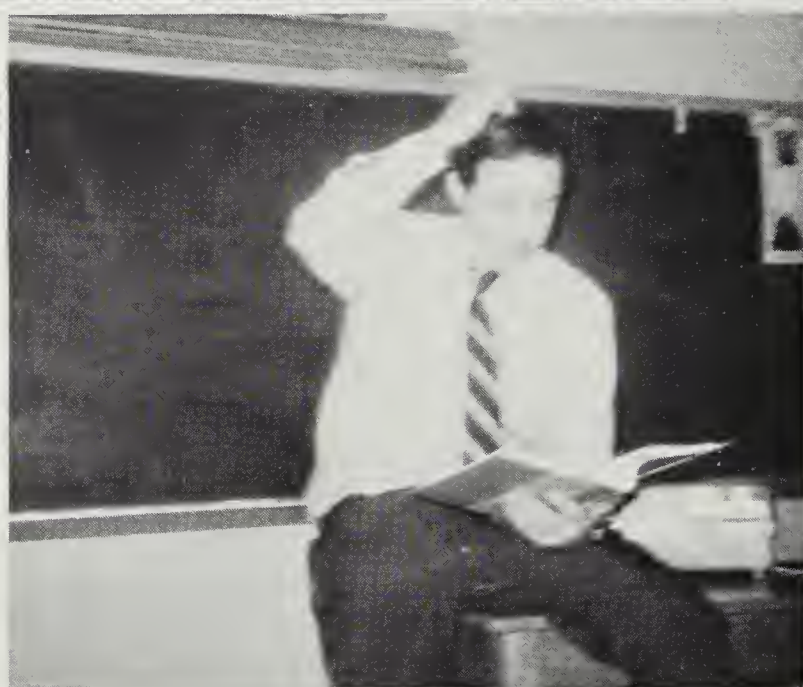

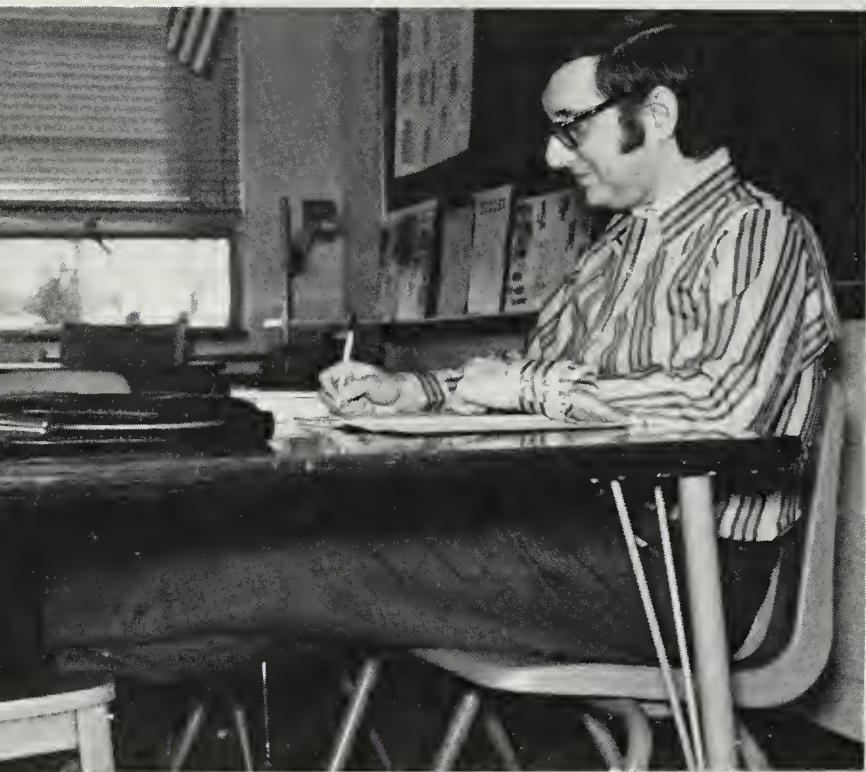

I can't seem to get my locker open.

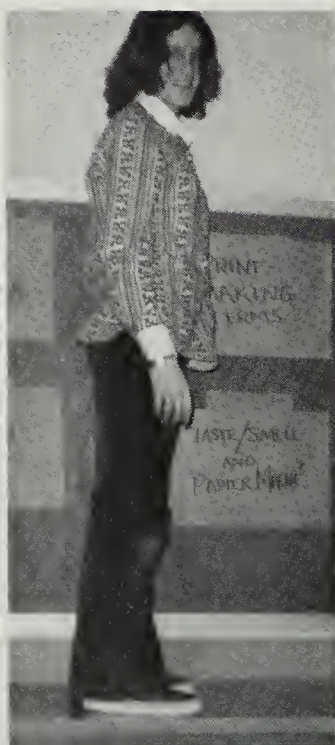

Get off my foot.

... AND SO IT IS TO A HIGHLY ALERT STAFF...

... A WELL DEVELOPED PROGRAM OF PHYSICAL FITNESS...

...AN INTELLECTUALLY STIMULATING
ACADEMIC CURRICULUM...

...AND A VARIED LUNCH PROGRAM OF HIGHLY NUTRITIONAL VALUE...

...THAT WE BID OUR FOND FAREWELLS.

The last bus leaves,
The school year's over.
Now we're all off to swimming pools,
And fields of clover.

We've studied this year,
And learned a great deal,
Math, English, science,
And how our friends feel.

We'll all miss each other,
As through life we go,
But, through happiness and sorrow,
We'll think of those we know!

Hands move along.

Long, short; tick-tock
